

University of Mississippi eGrove

Correspondence: Pro-integration

James Meredith Collection

10-8-1962

Catherine Pascue to Mr. Meredith (8 October 1962)

Catherine Pascue

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_pro

Recommended Citation

Pascue, Catherine, "Catherine Pascue to Mr. Meredith (8 October 1962)" (1962). Correspondence: Pro-integration. 1023. https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_pro/1023

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the James Meredith Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence: Pro-integration by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Answered 11/29/62
41 Meighen ave
Toronto 16 Ont

Oct. 8. 1962.

Dear Mr. Meredith:- I just had to sit down and write to tell you, that I think you are a brave and courageous young man, you are indeed a credit to your country. So we are with you all the way, don't despair, or ever give up hope, for one second.
Someone has to break through that terrible barrier that exists down there. It is not just for now alone, that it is important, it is for the future of your son and his generation so that ^{THEY} may grow up and be judged for themselves and their achievements alone, and no other reason. Just think of every threat and fear that you have had to take, that the one consolation you can offer yourself, is to know that you are paving the way for your son and his generation so that they will not have to go through the same humiliating experience.

(God Bless him, there is know reason in the world why he should. Et.) Please believe me when I say in all sincerity that I myself, my family, and ~~many~~, ~~many~~, more of us up here in Canada are deeply ashamed of the white race for the way you have been mistreated and hope in all humbleness that you will forgive us. I will close with kindest regards to your wife who must be a very worried young woman at this time, and also a very brave one, and to your son I would like to say with you, for a Father I don't think he has to much to worry about.

Good Luck and God Bless you.

Sincerely yours
Catherine Pascoe